

Dear Fellow Citizen:

Thank you for your willingness to serve on a city board or commission. Public service through volunteerism is a wonderful trademark in our community for developing positive growth and prosperity.

Rawlins Mayor and Council Members request that you complete the application form to receive the best consideration possible. Valuable information, such as recommendation letters from those who know you personally in our community, should be included.

Once your application has been received, the City Clerk's Office will contact you with an invitation to appear before the Mayor and City Council to introduce yourself and tell them about yourself.

Please return your application to:
